

Prayer to the Guardian Ancestor

“Ajuba to all my departed blood relatives.

“I call on the (male or female) ancestor on my (mother’s or father’s) side who is my primary guardian in this life-time, the (male or female) ancestor on my (mother’s or father’s) side who is my primary guardian in this life-time, the (male or female) ancestor on my (mother’s or father’s) side who is my primary guardian in this life-time.

“Please accept my offerings.

“Please accept the coolness of this water so that you may be cool and comfortable.

“Please accept this light and energy that you may have brightness and strength. “

Talk about your main offering and what you are asking for in making it.

Add any additional offerings asking your guardian ancestor to accept them and stating your intention with each specific offering.

“While I’ve missed your presence here on earth but gather strength and wisdom from your continued energy and guidance.

“May that guidance continue to open my paths and roads and the paths and roads of those I love.

“May your strength and energy give health to me and those I love.

“May your wisdom bring love and prosperity into my home.”

Add anything here you would like to ask for.

Give thanks to all your ancestors for everything they have brought to your life (i.e. the talents and abilities carried in your DNA) and for the love, support and protection that they give you.

Ase! Ase! Ase!
