

Prayer to Oko

I am truly grateful for the organization I have in my life. So, I connect with Esu-Oko to deepen my alignment with the Oko matrix.

I know that as I connect with this powerful energy, the essence of order, that I will bring more organization, and structure, into my life.

As I connect with Oko, I will be able to see the areas of my life that require more organization, and be able to set things in order within them.

I will have access to the industriousness, and sociableness, of the honey bee, so that I may work hard for the communities that I am a part of.

I will be able to connect with the scorpion and it's sting when it is time to protect that which I have created.

As I connect at even deeper levels with the Oko matrix, I will be able to create order out of the chaos that comes into my life, seeing it as potential to build something better.

I am truly grateful for the ability and opportunity to connect with this energy of organization.
