

Prayer to Ochosi

I am truly grateful for the communication that happens in my life.

So, I begin with Esu Ochosi, to open my paths and roads and connect me, at higher levels, with the Ochosi matrix.

I know, that as I connect with this powerful energy, I will bring successful communication, and focused intention, into my life.

As I align my thoughts to the matrix known as Ochosi:

I will be able to choose the words, intonation, and even body language, that will most successfully communicate my ideas.

My audience will understand the intent of my messages.

I will open my ears, and my heart, to receive responses as they are intended.

All my communication will become more effective.

I will learn to set powerful intentions, and to communicate those intentions to the Universe, so that I can be guided forward towards my goals.

As I connect at even deeper levels with the Ochosi matrix:

My intentions will fly straight and true, just like Ochosi's arrows, to lead me, even through the most confusing times, towards my destiny.

I am truly grateful for the ability and opportunity to connect with this energy of communication and intention.

Ase, ase, ase.
